

Privacy statement

(In compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998)

We aim to take a responsible approach to all areas of our business, and this includes the protection of your personal data. In order to process your booking or brochure request, we need to collect certain personal details from you. For a booking, these details will usually include the names and addresses of party members, and other information relating to payment, travel information and special requirements.

We would like to use your details for the specific purpose of sending you our brochures or details of promotions concerning the holidays we offer. We do not sell or pass any information you give us to any other party.

If you do not wish to receive any further information from us please let us know this at the time you give us your details or, if you do not do so then, at any time subsequently.

We have appropriate security measures in place to protect your data. You generally have the right to request a copy of the information we hold about you but such requests must be made in writing (by letter or e-mail). In certain limited situations where we are unable to determine that you are the same person whose data you are attempting to access, we may be entitled to refuse your request.

Our privacy statement does not apply to third party websites accessed from this website or from which this site has been accessed. Please refer to the individual site's own privacy statement.
